

Exercise 3.4.10

Kevin Martin
CIS675 - Syracuse University

January 24, 2020

If the explore procedure is called on a node in a sink SCC, then the set of nodes visited is exactly that SCC. This is true because, by definition, a sink SCC has no outgoing edges. Thus any node in that SCC returns the same result.