

Exercise 2.5.6

Kevin Martin
CIS675 - Syracuse University

January 15, 2020

If we randomly pick a pivot for the Quick Sort algorithm, it costs us  $O(n)$  to split the array.

The size of the subarrays could vary from  $\frac{n}{2}$  at best to  $n - 1$  at worst. Reduce problem by 25%.