

Exercise 2.5.10

Kevin Martin
CIS675 - Syracuse University

January 16, 2020

For a binary search tree, with an array of size n , there are $n!$ leaf nodes. Thus if $n = 3$, there would be 6 leafs. The minimum depth of the tree is $O(\log n!) = O(n \log n)$.